The Spirit War. It was a wretched thing, a black hole in the mud held together by tree roots. The entrance crumbled a little as Den pushed his way in. The inside of the cave was dim and low, forcing Den to stoop almost double until he climbed down to the bed of mud and leaves that served as the cave floor.

review 1: What happens when the caper gets serious? This is book #4 in the series, and darker than the earlier ones, though just as compelling. Much more is revealed about the world and how it works, which I appreciated. All of the characters are facing their "demons"- sometimes literally- and need to re-think their positions and values. While this book's arc does resolve in the book, it also ...
